AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF EMPLOYMENT OF OGLETREE DEAKINS
AS A PROFESSIONAL UTILIZED IN THE ORDINARY COURSE OF BUSINESS

STATE OF TENNESSEE)
)
 ss:
COUNTY OF DAVIDSON)

John G. Harrison, Esq., being duly sworn,
deposes and says:

I am a shareholder of the firm Ogletree,

Deakins, Nash, Smoak & Stewart, P.C. (the "Firm"), which has been employed by the debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned cases (collectively, the "Debtors") in the ordinary course of their business. The Debtors wish to retain the Firm to continue providing such ordinary-course services during their chapter 11 cases. This Affidavit is submitted in compliance with the Order Granting Debtors' Motion For Order Pursuant To Bankruptcy Code Sections 105(A), 327, 330 And 331 Authorizing Debtors To Employ Professionals Utilized In The Ordinary Course Of Business (the "OCB Professionals Order").

The Firm was provided with a list of interested parties and conducted a search of Firm's records for the names identified thereon. Based on that search, neither I, the Firm, nor any member, counsel, or associate thereof, insofar as I have been able to ascertain, has any connection with the Debtors, their creditors or stockholders, or any party in interest herein, except to the extent that the Firm has regularly served as labor and employment counsel to Circuit City Stores, Inc. and related entities, AON Corporation, Centex Corporation, The Home Depot, Lexmark

International, Sunoco, The Brinks Company, The Servicemaster Company, VF Corporation, and HBK Investments, among others.

1. The Firm does not represent or hold any interest adverse to the Debtors or their estates with respect to the engagement for which we are to be retained.

2. This Firm and certain of its members, counsel, and associates may have in the past represented, currently represent, and may in the future represent entities that are claimants or equity security holders of the Debtors in matters totally unrelated to the Debtors' chapter 11 cases. None of those past or current representations are material based on information currently under review. The Firm intends to apply for compensation for professional services rendered in connection with these chapter 11 cases directly to the Debtors, in accordance with the OCB Professionals Order, with such application to request compensation for services based on the hourly rates set forth below, plus reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses and other charges incurred by the Firm. The attorneys designated to represent the Debtors and their current standard rates are set forth on the list attached as Exhibit A.

3. Timekeepers who have regularly represented the Debtor are John G. Harrison (Dallas/Nashville), Ron Chapman (Dallas), Andrew Turner (Dallas/Little Rock), Alicia Voltmer (Dallas), William Rutchow (Nashville), Todd Kaiser (Indianapolis), Bruce Hearey (Cleveland), Linda Claxton (Los Angeles) and Brandyn Stedfield (Los Angeles). Ogletree Deakins has offered, and will continue to offer, discounts to the standard hourly rates of these timekeepers and other attorneys in the Firm.

4. The rates set forth above are subject to periodic adjustments to reflect economic and other conditions. Such rates are the Firm's standard rates for work of this nature. The rates are set at a level designed to fairly compensate the Firm for the work of its attorneys and paralegals and to cover fixed and routine overhead expenses. It is the Firm's policy to charge its clients in all areas of practice for all other expenses incurred in connection with a client's case. The expenses charged to clients include, among other things, photocopying, messenger and delivery, air freight, computerized research, videotape recording, travel (including mileage, parking, airfare, lodging, meals, and ground transportation), long distance telephone, telecopying, word processing, court costs and filing fees and, in general, all identifiable expenses that would not have been incurred except for representation of a particular client. The Firm will charge the Debtors for these expenses in a manner and at rates consistent with charges made generally to the Firm's other clients.

5. Except as provided in the OCB Professionals Order, no representations or promises have been received by the Firm as of the date of this Affidavit as to compensation in connection with these cases other than in accordance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. The Firm has no agreement with any other entity to share with such entity any compensation received by the Firm in connection with these chapter 11 cases.

WHEREFORE, affiant respectfully submits this Affidavit in Support of Employment of Ogletree Deakins
as a Professional Utilized in the Ordinary Course of Business.
